

DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

Science and Technology Advisory Panel

STAP 87-0002

CMTE 23-SR

12 March 1987

The Honorable William J. Casey
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

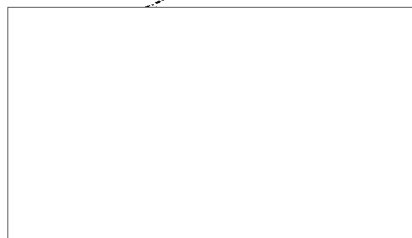

Dear Bill:

I'm writing to you on behalf of STAP to give you the Panel's best wishes and express our appreciation for your support over the past six years. We are all of course genuinely sorry and saddened by the circumstances of your resignation. The members are thinking about you during your convalescence and wish you the best of good fortune and a speedy recovery.

Advisory groups cannot be effective without a good relationship with the "boss," and STAP was fortunate to have your encouragement and counsel. The Panel's members are in complete agreement that their utility would have been limited if not for the keen interest you took in our work. I don't think we could have asked for a better relationship. It was our privilege to work with you.

Again, we send our very best to you and your family and wish you well in every way.

Sincerely,

STAT
